Trent Sahlin Wins $1000 Scholarship from S.C. International, Ltd.

CHICAGO, April 2010 — S.C. International, Ltd., is pleased to announce Trent Sahlin, a student at Purdue University, as the recipient of its $1000 Actuarial Scholarship. Sahlin, of Westerville, Ohio, is working toward a B.S. in both Actuarial Science and Statistics, with a minor in Management. With a GPA of 4.0, he has also successfully passed the first two Actuarial exams.

In addition, Sahlin is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa honors society, Dean's List/Honor Roll, Purdue Actuary Club; volunteers with the local baseball club and Habitat for Humanity; and enjoys intramural sports. As an intern with both Hewitt Associates and Nationwide Financial, Sahlin has earned real-world experience on projects such as pricing client health plans and redesigning the forecast model used for private sector retirement homes.

"We are pleased to have the opportunity to provide scholarships to deserving students," said Scott Rollins, president of S.C. International. "Actuarial science is a challenging and exciting field which is constantly changing, and we are proud to support the academic and professional efforts of high-quality, dedicated candidates entering this career." In response to rising education costs, S.C. International, Ltd. recently began offering Actuarial Science Scholarships to students entering their senior year of undergraduate study in Actuarial Science or Mathematics.
