Data Scientist

London N1 United Kingdom

Hours: Full-time (35 hours per week)
Contract: Permanent contract
Location: Society Building, London N1
Closing date: 12 noon, Friday 13 January 2017
Interviews: Thursday 26 January 2017

An exciting opportunity has arisen for a highly skilled and dedicated data scientist to join our successful research team. In this central role, you will be responsible for managing and developing NCVO’s research datasets and databases used to produce the UK Civil Society Almanac, the most widely used source of statistics on the voluntary sector, as well as a wide range of research projects.

You have strong quantitative analytical skills and experience of working with large and complex datasets. In addition to excellent project management skills, you have strong experience in using data-handling tools, including programming languages such as SQL, R and Python.

With strong written and oral communication skills, you are experienced in producing high quality written work and presentations, suitable for a range of audiences. You have excellent interpersonal skills; you work well both within a team and collaborate effectively with all levels of internal and external stakeholders.

Job information

For further information on this role, please visit our website:
https://www.ncvo.org.uk/about-us/work-for-us/job-ads

How to apply

We cannot accept your CV but for further information on how to apply, visit http://www.ncvo.org.uk/about-us/work-for-us

Please complete both parts of the application, quoting the reference SDS, and email to recruitment@ncvo.org.uk

If you have any queries regarding our vacancies or experience any issues downloading or submitting your application form, please email HR or phone us on 020 7520 2537 (24 hour voicemail).
About NCVO

Each day, millions of people make a difference to the causes they believe in through voluntary organisations and volunteering.

This thriving voluntary sector and volunteer movement are essential for a better society – especially in times of challenge and change.

That’s why, inspired and empowered by our 12,000 members, NCVO champions the voluntary sector and volunteering. We do this by connecting, representing and supporting voluntary organisations, from the smallest community groups to the largest charities.

NCVO is an equal opportunities employer and we welcome applications from everyone. Charity No. 225922

Benefits for NCVO employees

NCVO offers attractive benefits including 25 days’ annual leave, subsidised gym membership, flexible working, generous contributions to a stakeholder pension scheme and training and development opportunities.

www.statsjobs.com/job/data-scientist-10/