The University of Pittsburgh Dietrich School of Arts and Science is seeking applications for one Visiting Assistant Professor position in the Department of Statistics for up to three years beginning September 2019, pending budgetary approval.

The Department of Statistics has a strong commitment to fostering diversity, equality and inclusive excellence in a variety of research and teaching activities. We have a rapidly expanding program, especially at the undergraduate and master’s levels. We encourage candidates from all areas of research to apply. The successful candidate will teach undergraduate and graduate courses, and engage in research. Candidates should have or be expected to have their PhD in statistics or related field by September 1, 2019.

Additional information about the department can be found at http://www.stat.pitt.edu/. Informal inquiries about this position may be directed to Dr. Satish Iyengar, Interim Chair, at ssi@pitt.edu. Applicants should submit a cover letter, a curriculum vitae, a diversity statement, and three letters of reference. Candidates should send application materials to ssi@pitt.edu. Review of applications will begin May 10, 2018, and will continue until the position is filled. The University of Pittsburgh is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer and values equality of opportunity, human dignity and diversity. EEO/AA/M/F/Vets/Disable.
