The NHS Business Services Authority (NHSBSA) is the main processing facility and center of excellence for payment, reimbursement, remuneration and reconciliation for NHS Dental Practitioners, Pharmacists, NHS Pensions and other affiliated parties.

Are you a highly motivated individual seeking to make a difference in the public health sector? Are you a statistician, data scientist or similar with a passion for the NHS? If so, then this role may be the one for you.

The role of the Statistician for Information Services is to provide high quality statistical analysis of the data that is collected for NHS primary care dental services in England and Wales to drive better outcomes through data.

You will lead in the delivery of information and insight on dental activity and costs to those with the responsibility for setting NHS dental policy and commissioning services.

Working with business and finance colleagues, you will ensure that the data we collect are robust and will be used appropriately to deliver statistical insight and inform decision-making.

The NHSBSA is passionate about creating a diverse and inclusive organisation, which is a great place to work and truly reflects the diversity of our customers. As such we are looking for applications from talented people of diverse characteristics including age, disability, gender identity, marriage or civil partnership status, pregnancy or maternity, race or ethnicity, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation, or any marginalized group. We also recognize the valuable contribution that the Armed Forces community make and so welcome applications from veterans and reservists.

We are a disability confident employer and offer an invitation to the first stage of the selection process for people with disabilities who wish to be considered under the scheme.

All new entrants to the NHS will be appointed on the minimum of the pay scale in line with Agenda for Change Terms and Conditions.

If you are applying to undertake this role on a secondment basis you should discuss this opportunity with your manager and have agreement to being released from your current role in principle, prior to submitting an application form.

We reserve the right to close any vacancies from further submissions when we have received sufficient applications from which to make a shortlist. Please ensure you apply without delay if you wish to be considered for this role. For help with completing your application form, please read the guidance notes attached to this advert.

Please note all contact is made via our TRAC recruitment system. Please check your account regularly. If you are shortlisted for interview you will be required to provide proof of ID and the right to work in the UK. (Please refer to attached guidance documents for further details). Failure to bring the required proof will mean that we may be unable to proceed with your interview.

Please ensure you provide full contact details, including email address or fax number for each referee.

The NHSBSA is responsible for the processing of your application; a privacy notice is attached to advise you on how we will process your personal data.
