The Department of Statistics at the University of Florida invites applications for a full-time, nine-month, tenure-track Assistant Professor to begin in August 2016. We are particularly interested in candidates with research interests in data intensive and computationally intensive areas which will contribute to the mission of the UF Informatics Institute. Duties include teaching, research, and service.

ADVERTISED SALARY:

Salary is competitive, commensurate with qualifications and experience and includes a full benefits package.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

A PhD in statistics or a closely related field is required.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:

To apply, submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, research statement, and teaching statement through the UF Jobs website at http://explore.jobs.ufl.edu/cw/en-us/listing/, and have three or more letters of reference submitted by email to facultySearch@stat.ufl.edu. Review of applications will begin on 12/15/2015 and continue until the position is filled.

The final candidate will be required to provide an official transcript to the hiring department upon hire. A transcript will not be considered “official” if a designation of “Issued to Student” is visible. Degrees earned from an educational institution outside of the United States must be evaluated by a professional credentialing service provider approved by National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES), which can be found at http://www.naces.org/

The University of Florida is an Equal Opportunity Institution dedicated to building a broadly diverse and inclusive faculty and staff. The selection process will be conducted in accordance Florida’s Sunshine and Public Records Laws. If an accommodation due to disability is needed to apply for this position, please call (352) 392-2477 or the Florida Relay System at (800) 955-8771 (TDD).
