SafeLives has an unparalleled track record of using evidence and research to effect national change, and research and analysis is fundamental to helping SafeLives achieve its strategy.

The post holder will be responsible for working with and supporting the Research Manager to develop and deliver rigorous and sector leading data, analysis and recommendations across the full range of SafeLives programmes and products.

Through managing the work of the Research Analysts and Data Support Officers this role will ensure through programme design, data collection, delivery, analysis, reporting, interpretation and training on data sets and associated analytical techniques that all output is closely aligned to the wider SafeLives strategy and blueprint. The post holder will also be responsible for liaising with the practice and communication teams to ensure key practice messages are tested, agreed and aligned with SafeLives blueprint. The post holder will also be expected to engage with consultancy projects and help to drive the development of strategic products.

As one of four Senior Research Analysts, the post holder will work primarily on a range of specific projects/programmes drawn from the full remit of SafeLives work but will also be expected to support other project streams and support cross data set working.

The successful applicant will be able to demonstrate their experience of scoping, designing and delivering evaluation research and analysing and drawing meaning from large quantitative data sets. With a sound understanding of statistics and extensive experience of conducting statistical analyses they will also be confident in communicating clear practice and policy implications drawn from data and evidence in a range of formats to both specialist and non-specialist audiences.

Deadline for applications is 10:00am on Friday 3rd June. First round interviews will take place in Bristol on Tuesday 14th June and second round interviews will take place on Monday 20th June.

CVs will not be accepted. No agencies please.
