Analyst

Believe in children
Barnardo's

Euston, London
Barkingside, London

Ref: 3384

Apply
https://jobs.barnardos.org.uk/jobs/vacancy/analyst-3384/3375/description/

This post can be located at our offices in Euston or Barkingside

The Strategic Impact Team is responsible for supporting Barnardo's to measure and maximise the impact we have on children, young people and families, through robust insight, analysis and evidence – focused on our Corporate Strategy and key enablers

We are looking to recruit an analyst who will help enhance the quality, consistency and presentation of data collected; and is able to use that data to provide high quality analysis for internal use in corporate decision making and external use in presenting and influencing.

Key responsibilities will include:

- To lead on developing Barnardo's data set to enhance its accuracy, consistency, coverage, and timeliness, ensuring it is meaningful to key stakeholders.

Examples of Barnardo's data include:

- Demographic information on the children, young people and families Barnardo's supports.
- Data on the outcomes that we achieve with the children, young people and families Barnardo's supports.
- Demographic information on Barnardo's staff members.
- Finance information on the services that Barnardo's runs.
- To lead on providing high quality analysis and advice, working closely with the Economist, to inform and strengthen Barnardo's internal management information and external influencing work.
- To support the Economist in developing quantitative assessments to inform decision-making across the organization.
To work with the Economist on developing the tools and analysis needed to drive Barnardo's approach to raising performance and delivering continuous improvements and efficiencies.

When completing your application please refer to your skills knowledge and experience in relation to the Person Specification, Job Description and Additional Information document. This should be done with an understanding of the context of the service described.

Barnardo’s believe in creating equality of opportunity in the workplace and supporting people to manage their work-life balance; we are therefore are open to offering flexible working arrangements.

About Barnardo’s

At Barnardo’s we believe in children – no matter who they are, what they have done or what they have been through. Please read about our basis and values following the link below. You will be asked questions relating to them as part of the recruitment process for this role.

Barnardo's is committed to having a diverse and inclusive workforce for staff and volunteers. We actively encourage applications from disabled, Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic and male candidates as they are under-represented within Barnardo’s.

Our basis and values

Apply

https://jobs.barnardos.org.uk/jobs/vacancy/analyst-3384/3375/description/