Lecturer (Assistant Professor)/Senior Lecturer/Reader (Associate Professor) in Statistics

Bath, UK

A successful applicant at Senior Lecturer/Reader Level (roughly equivalent to Associate Professor) will have an outstanding track record of independent research of international standing. At Lecturer level (roughly equivalent to Assistant Professor), a successful applicant will have shown exceptional potential for achieving such research excellence.

The appointee will be expected to sustain a leading research programme, and to be active in developing and submitting competitive applications for external funding. Candidates should also have a strong interest in pursuing excellence in undergraduate and postgraduate teaching and in supervising graduate students.

Both the Department and the University are committed to providing a supportive and inclusive working environment. We are working to improve the present gender balance within the Department, and particularly welcome applications from women.

Alongside completion of the online application form, it is essential that candidates upload:

– a full Curriculum Vitae,
– a statement of research interests of up to 3 pages explaining how their work would complement and strengthen existing activity at Bath,
– a one page summary of teaching experience, including a statement of which courses in our existing undergraduate programme they would be able to teach, and – the names and addresses of at least three referees.

Candidates should specify which position(s) (Lecturer/Senior Lecturer/Reader) they wish to apply for.

Interviews will be held on the 17th/18th May 2016.

Informal enquiries may be addressed to: Professor Julian Faraway (J.J.Faraway@bath.ac.uk), Professor Chris Jennison (C.Jennison@bath.ac.uk) or Dr Merrilee Hurn (M.A.Hurn@bath.ac.uk).

Salary: Grade 8 (Lecturer): £38,896 rising to £46,414 Grade 9 (Senior Lecturer/Reader): £47,801 rising to £55,389
